Reducing freight costs offers companies the opportunity to become more competitive. Within the City of Chippewa Falls a Canadian National (CN) Intermodal facility exists. The CN Intermodal terminal is used for rail shipments going coast to coast and internationally. This terminal allows for a more streamlined operation to get products to different markets, and provides a transportation hub and new opportunities for business.
NEW!

Intermodal Terminal and Grain Facility in Chippewa Falls - Offering the Upper Midwest direct and efficient single rail-line access to new North American and global markets via our continental network as well as the ports we serve on the Pacific, Atlantic and Gulf coasts

Intermodal Facility
- 5 acres
- Located 90 miles east of Minneapolis
- 7 days/week rail service
- Operates Monday – Saturday: 0700-1800
- 2,500 ft long loading/unloading track
- Projected volume of 5,000 containers per year
- Ground storage: ~150 containers
- Operated by ITS
  - Four employees
  - One lift equipment
  - Two shunt trucks
- Truck to container grain transloading available for:
  - Corn, soybeans, DDGs and other dry bulk grains
- USDA grading and sampling certification available
- Transload within the terminal which means no road weight restrictions
- Two mobile transloaders
  - Testing an auger system
- Certified scale